

ASSOCIATION OF REGULATORY & DISCIPLINARY LAWYERS

Marion Simmons QC Essay Prize 2017

ARDL is delighted to announce that the annual Marion Simmons QC essay prize is now open to entrants, with the following title:

What effect would the UK's exit from the European Union have on the law of regulation in the UK?

Entrants are free to choose whether to focus on one particular area of regulation, or to adopt a wider approach and address a range of regulatory areas.

The first prize is £2,000, the second £1,000 and the third £500. The judges will include leading academics in the field of regulation and members of the ARDL Committee.

The essay competition was set up in memory of the late Marion Simmons QC, who sadly died on May 2, 2008, aged 59. Marion was a barrister, recorder, arbitrator and, latterly, chairman of the Competition Appeal Tribunal. Her areas of practice covered a wide range of financial and commercial law, including competition and regulation. Marion served on ARDL's Committee for two years and was committed in her support of young lawyers.

Competition Terms and Conditions:

To be eligible, an entrant must fall into at least one of the following categories (subject to the discretion of the competition organisers to extend eligibility on a case by case basis as they see fit):

- undergraduates or postgraduates in study at a recognised educational establishment in the United Kingdom;
- trainee solicitors in the UK;
- pupil barristers in the UK;
- those training in the UK as part of a Chartered Institute of Legal Executives' approved training programme;
- solicitors who qualified in the UK and who have been so qualified for fewer than three years;
- barristers called in the UK fewer than three years ago;
- those who qualified with Cilex in the UK and who have been so qualified for fewer than three years;
- those who are taking a period of up to sixteen months as a sabbatical or "gap year" within their undergraduate or postgraduate study or after such study and before starting a confirmed place as a pupil barrister in the UK, trainee solicitor in the UK or Cilex training in the UK.

Entries must be no longer than 3,000 words (word count includes footnotes but excludes bibliography) and should be type-written in the English language. The judges' decision will be final. Essays must be submitted so as to be received by 5pm on Friday 28 April 2017 by post or email to: Nicole Curtis Penningtons Manches LLP, 125 Wood Street, London EC2V 7AW; nicole.curtis@penningtons.co.uk
