

IAIN MILLER

Written Profile re nomination for ARDL Committee

I am a partner at Kingsley Napley. I specialise in the regulation of lawyers and also act in relation to other professionals including architects and surveyors. I am General Editor of Cordery on Legal Services.

I am currently Vice Chair of ARDL having served on its Committee for 3 years. During this time, I have contributed by speaking and chairing events, assisting with the annual dinner, and re-drafting the constitution.

If elected my aim would be to work towards ARDL becoming an even more authoritative voice in its specialist areas as we enter a time of regulatory change.
