

RICHARD COLEMAN Q.C.

Written Profile re nomination for ARDL Committee

Richard Coleman Q.C. (Fountain Court Chambers) has a broad civil practice, and is recommended in the directories as a leading Silk in professional discipline, financial services, banking and commercial litigation. Co-opted as a member of the committee in 2014, he has been particularly involved in the organisation of ARDL's education programme. In the last year he has delivered ARDL seminars on dishonesty in the regulatory context and on legal ethics. If elected, he would seek to continue to strengthen the association's education programme, which he sees as the core of ARDL's work.
