

Seminar Programme 2019

Thursday 28th February 2019 - Inaugural Seminar

Scotland's role and contribution to the regulatory jurisprudence – Dr Mallon to Dr Mehta and more

Speaker: Roddy Dunlop QC

Panel: Jim Percival, Deputy General Counsel at the General Medical Council and Catriona Watt, Immediate Past Chair of ARDL

Wednesday 24th April 2019

Which standard of proof for regulatory proceedings?

Chair: Philip Yelland, Executive Director of Regulation at the Law Society of Scotland

Speakers: Elaine Motion, Partner, Balfour & Manson (beyond reasonable doubt)
Robert Carr, Partner, Anderson Strathern, (balance of probabilities)

Thursday 13th June 2019

The role of the legal adviser and legally qualified chairs

Chair: Christine O'Neill, Partner, Brodies

Speakers: Maree Allison, Director of Fitness to Practise at Scottish Social Services Council
Robert Frazer, Advocate, and legal adviser to NMC, FRC, GTC Scotland
Regulatory panel member – to be confirmed

Thursday 29th August 2019

Dishonesty and lack of integrity – how are they dealt with in regulatory proceedings?

Chair and speakers to be confirmed

Thursday 10th October - The Public and the Private – where is the line for regulation in professional and private behaviour?

Chair and speakers to be confirmed

Thursday 21st November 2019

Winter Supper and Drinks Reception

Address: The View from the Bench: (Address to be given by a senior member of the judiciary TBC).
Followed by sit-down supper. There will be a charge for tickets/drinks, subsidised by ARDL.

- All seminars take place in The Hub, Anderson Strathern, unless otherwise advertised
- All seminars start at 5pm and will qualify for 1 – 1.5 hours of CPD.
- All seminars are followed by a drinks reception to allow for networking and further discussion
- Contact Catriona Watt on catriona.watt@andersonstrathern for further information