

Lay panel members of acca's disciplinary and regulatory committees

ACCA (THE ASSOCIATION OF CHARTERED CERTIFIED ACCOUNTANTS) IS THE GLOBAL BODY FOR PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANTS. ACCA'S AIM IS TO ACHIEVE AND PROMOTE THE HIGHEST PROFESSIONAL, ETHICAL AND GOVERNANCE STANDARDS AND TO ADVANCE THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

ACCA is seeking applications from those interested in becoming lay panel members who will sit on ACCA's disciplinary and regulatory committees.

Essential Responsibilities

- Work within the legal framework of ACCA's disciplinary and regulatory functions and Rulebook
- The analysis of complex information to deliver well-reasoned decisions
- Clear and objective articulation and drafting of decisions
- A team player with the confidence to think, act and articulate clearly under pressure
- Act with integrity and discretion.

A lay panel member must never have been a member of ACCA, nor hold qualifications that would entitle them to become a member of ACCA.

Fee

- a fee of £400 (including VAT) will be paid per hearing day

Hearings take place throughout the week in central London and lay panel members will be expected to sit approximately 10 to 14 days per year.

Apply

For further information, including a Q&A with current panel members, and to apply, please visit www.accaglobal.com/panelrecruitment

Closing date: 12pm (noon) 26 April 2019

Interviews: between 17 June and 9 July 2019.

Induction process (for successful candidates): September (date to be confirmed).

Contact

T 020 7059 5925

E panelmemberrecruitment@accaglobal.com