- Advising and providing guidance to ACCA with regards to the investigation of complaints against students, affiliates, members and firms
- Advising senior / executive management to ensure that decisions made comply with regulatory law practice and judicial authority
- Providing specialist accredited legal training in the form of lectures and seminars to both the internal organisation as well as externally

The Person

We're looking for someone who:

- Is a practising barrister or solicitor advocate
- Has significant experience and sound knowledge of civil / criminal proceedings
- Has sound knowledge of regulatory law, practice and procedure
- Has sound knowledge of human rights legislation and practice
- Has some knowledge of data protection law, practice and procedure
- Has the ability to manage a significant caseload and provide appropriate legal advice on complex issues with a focused approach to delivering results in accordance with guidelines and targets
- Has confident and persuasive advocacy with the ability to influence others
- Is preferably authorised by BSB to conduct litigation
- Has excellent people skills so as to work collaboratively in a multi departmental environment
